

Hyperlite Accessory Table Installation

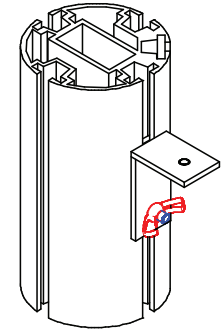

Place counter top upside down on a clean surface and attach the leg support and interface bracket as shown, tighten wingnuts

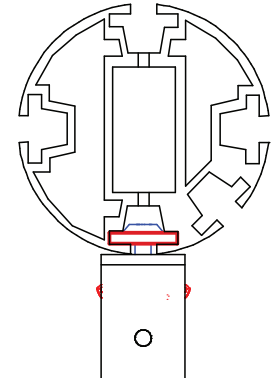

Carefully flip the counter unit over and whilst holding off the ground line up the interface bracket with the desired slot in the extrusion and lower in into place

Bracket detail showing bracket interface with extrusion

Top view showing bracket interface with extrusion

Please note: Accessory trim and counter top shape may differ depending on which model you purchased